Description

The volume of electronic navigation data continues to grow at an exponential rate. In order to stay within Flight Management System (FMS) memory limits, the following navigation database coverage changes will be made.

Database part numbers 604-C5, 604-JC5, 1350-C5, and 1350-JC5 will no longer be available after cycle 2407, effective 11 July 2024. To view alternative options, access Navigation Database Order Form SCN 601 thru 604 from the Navigation Databases page: <https://www.universalavionics.com/home/support-services/navigation>.

If you wish a different alternative, please contact Universal Avionics Database Sales Administration.
